

At 5:02 p.m., Commissioner Hanson made a motion to go into closed session that was seconded by Commissioner Rideout. The motion passed 5-0. The meeting in closed session was pursuant to Maryland Code Ann., Gen. Prov. 3-305(b)(7) and (8) to consult with the City Attorney to obtain legal advice and regarding potential litigation. Mayor Victoria Jackson-Stanley, Commissioners Rideout, Sydnor, Foster, Cannon, and Hanson were in attendance. City commissioners exited the closed session at 5:59 p.m.

The City Council met in regular session on September 23, 2019 in Council Chambers. A quorum being present, Mayor Victoria Jackson-Stanley called the meeting to order to 6:00 pm. Those Commissioners in attendance were Commissioners Rideout, Sydnor, Foster, Cannon, and Hanson. Mayor Victoria Jackson-Stanley asked for a moment of silence in observance of Childhood Cancer Awareness month. Commissioner Hanson led in the Pledge of Allegiance.

The Mayor advised the public of the reason for the closed session.

1. The Mayor asked if the Agenda would be accepted as it was. The city manager sought to remove item 13, the update on the Governor's Hall lease agreement, as there were still matters to be worked out. Commissioner Sydnor objected to that request. After further discussion, the Agenda was approved with a vote 3-2.

Requests for the Public

Michael Wheatley asked if the Dorchester Young Professionals could place a toy donation box for Christmas toys at City Hall from November 15th to December 15th. On a motion by Commissioner Sydnor and a second from Commissioner Hanson the request was approved by a unanimous vote.

Sharon Smith spoke about the Finance Committee Meeting that she had planned to attend at city hall based on the public notice that it would take place at 11:30 a.m. The meeting time was changed to 10:30 a.m. without notice to the public. It was stated that future meetings will be publicized and that the public is welcomed to attend.

John Foster wanted to note that the Trunk or Treat time on the consent calendar was 6-8:30 p.m. rather than 6-8:00 p.m.

Rick Klepfer then spoke regarding the proposed amendments to the animal ordinance and his encounter with a dog that attacked and bit him as he was walked along Choptank Avenue. He was supporting the proposed animal ordinance that was being proposed which would give the Cambridge Police authority to address animal matters in the city.

Theresa Lamar, the owner of Minty's Restaurant on Locust Street, came to speak about the notice she received from the city directing her to remove some low voltage lighting she had installed for the tables in the patio area of her restaurant. She received a special exception to have outdoor seating with lighting. Odie Wheeler said he needed to meet with public works staff to discuss the matter.

Alan Girard, the Eastern Shore Director of the Chesapeake Bay Foundation, gave a briefing on the health of the waters of the Chesapeake Bay, the Choptank, and other local tributaries. Also speaking were Tom Lee, Circuit Rider for the Healthy Waters Roundtable, and Joanna Osbourn of Envision the Choptank.

Sandra Tripp-Jones then provided the Council with a report on what has been happening with Cambridge Waterfront Development, Inc. (CWDI).

Ina Holden, the Executive Assistant HR and Risk Management for the City of Cambridge Public Works Department spoke on the status of hiring a Housing Specialist, which is a contract position that has 2 years of state funding. There have been 11 applicants. Three have been determined to be qualified. Ms. Holden was also asked about the Economic Development Director position that was recently advertised. She indicated that the city had received 34 applications and eight (8) people were found qualified for interviews. The list has been narrowed down to four (4). No decisions have been made.

Consent Calendar

The consent calendar consisted of the following Agenda Items 2 through 8. Commissioner Sydnor made a motion to approve the consent agenda seconded by Commissioner Canon. The motion was approved unanimously.

2. Meeting minutes from September 9, 2019 Council Meeting.
3. The request for the CDCCP, Inc. 71st Annual Cambridge-Dorchester County Christmas Parade on December 7th from 4-10:00 p.m.
