Kathy,

Dank Day is street event planned for March 11th, a typically difficult time of year for downtown businesses to generate traffic. The event is primarily being organized by RAR Brewing with Cambridge Main Street support and coordination with surrounding businesses. The event will be similar to other street events with beer sales, live music with a single main stage. The event will feature a particular Caribbean theme during the event. RAR Brewing will be releasing their most popular brand this day and the event is slated to draw many folks from outside our area to the city and our downtown for the event, equaling good outside exposure for the city. The event will also showcase local restaurants, Maryland restaurants/fare.

Please let me know if you have any questions.
