

Snow Alert

The City of Cambridge is expecting 2-3 inches of snow on Wednesday. City snow crews will be pre-treating streets in anticipation of the snow. Because of the limited amount of snow expected, at this time there will be no snow emergency declared. The city is still requesting that cars not be parked on snow emergency routes.

City officials request that you help your elderly and disabled neighbors clean their sidewalks.