Eagleman and Ironman Honored by City Council

To honor the years of positive attention and economic vitality the Eagleman and Ironman have brought to the Cambridge community, the City Council of Cambridge presented a citation and a key to the city to this organization during their regular meeting on Monday, Jan. 12, 2026.

Commission President Sputty Cephas read the citation. It stated: “Your races have brought athletes and visitors from around the world, creating a positive and lasting impact on our community. ... We extend our heartfelt gratitude for your continued partnership and contributions to Cambridge’s success.”

Commissioner Brian Roche presented the key to the organization members in attendance. An organization representative mentioned that Ironman was into its 12th year here and Eagleman it’s 30th year. She added, “... without the support of the city and all of the residents welcoming athletes to our community and creating such a welcoming environment that they want to come back to year after year ... it’s a tremendous success and we couldn’t ask for a better place to put on events.”

Commissioners Roche, Cephas, Stout and Summers stand with local members of the Eagleman and Ironman organization.
