Cambridge Main Street Honored by City

At their regular meeting on Monday, Jan. 12, 2026, the Cambridge City Council presented a citation and a key to the city to the Cambridge Main Street organization. Commission President Sputty Cephas, presiding at the meeting, read the citation.

The citation honors the organization's dedication, unwavering commitment, vision, leadership and tireless efforts. It states: "... you have helped create a vibrant, welcoming, and thriving downtown that reflects the spirit and pride of our community. ... This honors not only your achievements but also the lasting impact you have made in shaping a brighter future for our city.

Commissioner Brett Summers presented the key to Executive Director Christina Wingate-Spence and the members present at the meeting.

Commissioner Brett Summers hands Cambridge Main Street Executive Director Christina Wingate-Spence the key to the City of Cambridge as organization members and city commissioners look on.
